

Anatomy of a discount term...

2/10 net 30

This number represents the % of the invoice amount that they offer as a discount

This number represents the number of days that they have to take advantage of the discount

This number represents the number of days that they have to pay the total amount if they don't take the discount.