

Managing Diversity

1. Plurality of culture along various cultural dimensions or cultural locations
2. Socially constructed and historically transmitted patterns of symbols, meanings, premises and rules
3. Objects which carry particular meaning for a culture
4. Characters who are highly respected and serve as an ideal role model in a culture
5. Set of activities which are repeated in certain situations with specific meaning
6. Cultural standards or judgments of what is and is not right, good or desirable
7. Classifying people based on genetic history and identifiable physical characteristics
8. Outward expression or enactment of what society deems masculine and feminine
9. Fixed, oversimplified generalization toward members of a certain group
10. Judgment about people based simply upon their age
