

Dealing with Change

Directions:

1. Choose three major life changes you may have to deal with one day. For example, a job change, moving to a new city or having children.
2. For each change, write a paragraph describing why it might be difficult and develop strategies you would use to deal with the change.
3. Be prepared to discuss your answers with the class.