

Family Functioning Discussion

Directions:

1. On separate sheet of paper, write down some impacts effective family functions have on your community, including your school, neighborhood, society, etc.
2. Include some examples of ways you would like to see families be more involved in your communities and what they can do to help.
3. Be prepared to participate in a class discussion and share your thoughts.