

Financial Information Sources

Directions:

Having good information is vital when making financial decisions. It is also important the information comes from reputable sources.

1. Identify two of each of the following which can be used when learning about personal finance, retirement planning, investments or savings.
 - Instructional Materials (courses you could take):

 - Newspaper/Magazine Articles:

 - Blogs/Personal Narratives/Self-Help Books:

 - Industry Publications: