Business Ownership Decisions

Pamela owns a pet-sitting business. People hire her to take care of their pets when they go out of town. As part of her service, Pamela also brings in her clients' mail and waters their plants. Her business is booming, and she needs to make some critical decisions about its future.

Analyze Help Pamela decide what to do now. Should she expand her business? Add employees? Take on a partner? Make sure that you evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of each suggestion you offer as you outline your suggestions on paper.
