

Formulas for Career Success: Interview Preparation

Job Interview

process in which a potential employee is evaluated by an employer through the asking and answering of questions

Applicant

person who applies

Critical Thinking

disciplined, rational thinking, informed by evidence through which one can develop reasonable conclusions