

Best in Class

Directions:

1. Develop an individual persuasive presentation detailing why your pen or pencil is the best in the class.
2. The presentation should include the following:
 - A. An image of your pen or pencil
 - B. A visual aid such as a poster or Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation
 - C. A list of the top five reasons why your pen or pencil is the best in the class
3. Use what you have learned about persuasive presentations to develop your presentation.
4. Present your presentation to the class.
5. Be sure to pay attention during the other students' presentations because a vote will be conducted after everyone has presented to determine whose pen or pencil is the best in class.
