

Creating a Quiz from a Website

Be sure your Brisk Chrome extension is installed. You can get it from here - <https://www.briskteaching.com/>.

Find the website with information that you want. I searched for Non-Verbal Communication.

Click on the Chrome Brisk extension icon in the upper right corner. You may have to sign-in at this point.

The Brisk icon will appear at the bottom right of your page. Click it. The Brisk box will appear.

Non-Verbal Communication Modes

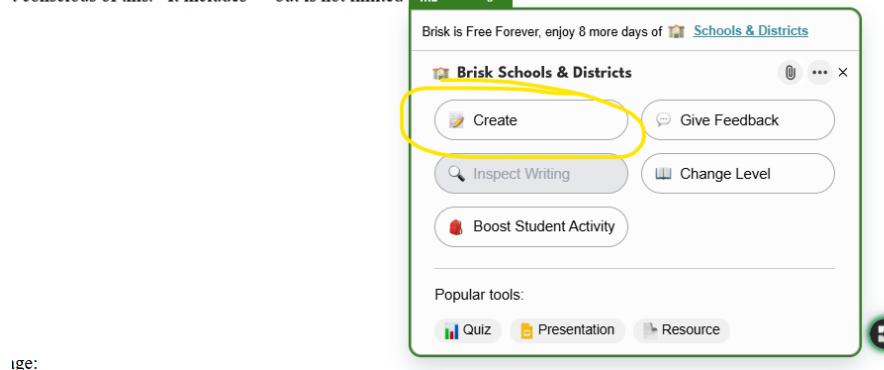

in BSAD560, Intercultural Business Relations, a graduate course offered as an elective in the MBA program at Andrews University. It is used for professional purposes such as teaching, intercultural training seminars, etc. In such cases, provide an appropriate academic citation.

to translate these notes into another language and wish to have this noted here, please let me know.

-modes/

referowany

Non-verbal stimuli in a communication setting that are generated by both the source [speaker] and his or her use of the environment [audience] (Samovar et al.). Basically it is sending and receiving messages in a variety of ways without the use of verbal codes (words). We are not always conscious of this. It includes — but is not limited to —

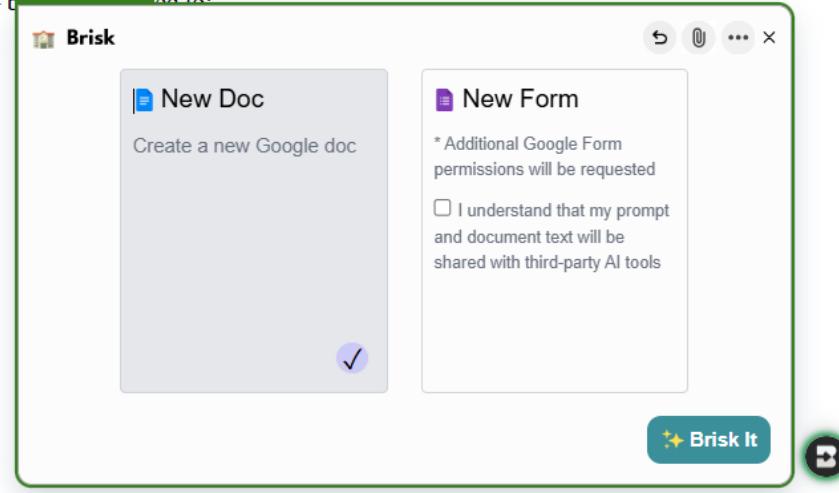

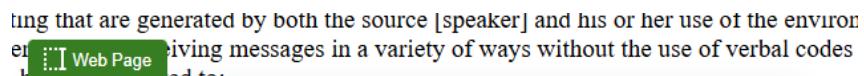

Choose Quiz from the Library box that appears:

The box to instruct Brisk to make a quiz will appear. If you want the answers to the quiz, you must add “and include a key” to the text box instructions. Choose grade level and number of questions. Click Next.

You can choose either New Document or New Google Form. I chose New Doc because I do not use Google Forms. Click Brisk It.

A quiz will generate with a key at the end. Download (File, Download, Microsoft Word) and adjust as needed. (I upload to BookWidgets to make it interactive.)

